

Decision Number 15

On Islamic Collective Investment Schemes

The Chairman of the Capital Markets Authority (hereinafter the “CMA”)/Governor of the Banque du Liban,

Pursuant to Law 161 of August 17, 2011 on Capital Markets, this vested in the CMA all the powers related to the establishment and functioning of Islamic Collective Investments Schemes,

Pursuant to Law 575 of February 11, 2004, in particular article 4, on the establishment of Islamic Banks in Lebanon,

Pursuant to Law 706 of December 9, 2005 on the Islamic Collective Investments Schemes in transferable securities and other financial instruments,

Pursuant to the decision of the Board of the CMA taken in its meeting held on December 20, 2013,

Declares the following,

Article 1: For the purpose of the implementation of this decision’s provisions, the terms hereunder shall have the meaning ascribed to them below:

“Islamic Scheme” : The Islamic Collective Investment Scheme in Islamic financial instruments and other financial instruments aimed at the collective investment of the investors’ funds, according to the risk distribution principle, and in conformity with the Sharia laws and regulations, without prejudice to the provisions of the observed laws and regulations. The “Islamic Scheme” may be represented by an “Islamic Investment Fund” or an “Islamic Investment Company”.

“Islamic Investment Fund”	: A collective investment fund specialized in the investment in Islamic financial instruments and other financial instruments, according to the Islamic Sharia rules.
“Islamic Investment Company”	: An open end investment company, specialized in the investment in Islamic financial instruments and other financial instruments according to the Islamic Sharia rules.
“Administrator”	: The Islamic bank, financial institution or specialized company in charge of managing the “Islamic Scheme”.
“Investments”	: Investing funds in order to own shares, “Islamic financial instruments” or “units” of the collective investment Schemes, for the purpose of trading or generating a revenue.
“Specialized Collective Investment Schemes”	: Schemes which invest directly in “Islamic financial instruments” or in any other financial instruments stemming from one or many specific projects, issued by the “Administrator” of the “Islamic Scheme” to the investors, with the term of the “Islamic Scheme” linked to the term of the project or projects.
“Units”	: The shares or nominative stakes representing the properties of their owners within the assets of the “Islamic Scheme”.
“Net assets”	: Represent the rights of the investors, and include the equivalent of the contributions of the “units” owners, undistributed net investments income (or investments’ losses), undistributed net realized profits (or net realized losses), net increase or decrease in the investments value, and the net of any other assets.
“Capital margins”	: Additional funds collected from “units” owners or other parties, without issuing any “units” in return, in order to fund the “Islamic Scheme” or uphold its credit situation.
“Islamic financial instruments”	: Financial instruments of equal value, issued and traded in accordance with the Islamic Sharia rules, representing joint stakes in the ownership of in kind properties, utilities, specific project or investment activity.
“Speculation”	: An agreement between the employer and the speculator, whereby the first puts down his/her money, and the latter his/her work for the purpose of splitting the profits according to the agreement.

Article 2: Taking into consideration the supervisory authority of Banque Du Liban over Islamic banks,

It is not allowed to establish, or contribute in the establishment of an “Islamic Investment Fund” or “Islamic Investment Company”, except by the following Schemes working in Lebanon:

- 1- Islamic banks
- 2- Companies specialized in the management of “Islamic Schemes”.

Article 3: The management contract signed between the “Administrator” and the management of the “Islamic Investment Company” should include, explicitly and accurately, at least, the following items:

- 1- The rights and obligations of the “Administrator”, particularly, an explicit mention of the exclusive right of the “Administrator” to manage the operations of the “Islamic Investment Company”.
- 2- The term of the contract.
- 3- Any termination, amendments, or cancellation of the contract.

Article 4: The “Administrator” must appoint a legal auditing body or legal consultant for the “Islamic Scheme”, in order to set forth legal rules for the management of the investment of the “Islamic Scheme”, without prejudice to the enforced laws and regulations.

Article 5: In addition to any other information required by the regulations and decisions on Collective Investment Schemes, the prospectus should include, in particular, the following information:

- 1- The type and activity of the “Islamic Scheme”, along with the main investment policies governing its activities, investments goals behind its creation, as well as the explicit mention that the “Islamic Scheme” was created in conformity with the Sharia rules.
- 2- The accounting policy for the valuation of investments, receivables, financing operations and other assets.

- 3- The accounting policy to be adopted for the confirmation of income.
- 4- The accounting policy to be adopted for covering the “Islamic Scheme” establishment costs.
- 5- The principles governing the restoration, by the investor, of some or all of his/her units.
- 6- The contractual relationship between the “Islamic Scheme” and the managing party or parties, as needed.
- 7- The principles governing the purchase and sales operation, by the “Islamic Scheme”, of assets belonging to the “Administrator”, or those which he has an interest in.
- 8- The principles governing the joint operations between the “Administrator” and “Islamic Scheme”, for financing some or all of the “Islamic Scheme” operations.
- 9- The principles governing the investment operations that the “Administrator” might carry out in the “Islamic Scheme” he/she manages.
- 10- The “Administrator’s” potential fee, which can be either deducted or calculated, exclusively, based on a known proportion of the “Islamic Scheme’s” profits, of the contributions’ value, or of the value of the “Islamic Scheme’s” assets.
- 11- The principles governing the investment operation carried out by the “Islamic Scheme” in another “Islamic Scheme” managed by the “Administrator”.
- 12- The principles of the evaluation of the “Islamic Scheme’s” assets.
- 13- How to act in the case of a profit not in conformity with the Sharia, if it occurred.
- 14- Determining whether the Zaqat (almsgiving) is the responsibility of the units’ owners or that of the “Islamic Scheme”, in which case, the “Islamic Scheme” shall declare the value of the Zaqat due by each unit.
- 15- Whether or not the “Islamic Scheme” shall receive any allocations in return for its commitments.
- 16- The term and conditions for the cancellation of the “Islamic Scheme”.

Article 16: The “Administrator” shall:

1- Organize the financial statements of the “Islamic Scheme”, based on the templates (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9) attached to this decision.

2- Provide the CMA with the above-mentioned statements prior to the end of April.

Article 7: In addition to the provisions of this decision, all the provisions, regulations and principles pertaining to the Collective Investment Schemes shall be applied to the Islamic Collective Investment Schemes, unless otherwise mentioned in another law.

Article 8: Any person violating the provisions of this decision shall be subject to the administrative sanctions provided for in the observed laws and regulations, particularly those stated in Law 161 of August 17, 2011 (on Capital Markets).

Article 9: This decision shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall enter into force as of March 3, 2014.

Beirut, February 13, 2014
